The property

Corona Del Mar runs parallel to the bluffs, which means ocean air without bluff-edge geology reports. The house was rebuilt to the studs in 2012 and reads as new construction while keeping the street's scale.

An open ground floor with a proper entry hall rather than a door straight into the living room, four bedrooms above, and a flat rear garden with a pool — uncommon on this side of the village.

Two blocks to the village, one to the bluff path, and inside the Palisades Charter Elementary boundary.
